

THE WEEK

FEATURE

For sale: 7 breathtaking homes with built-in spas

May 30, 2016

Dallas. This four-bedroom, Mediterranean-style home was built in 2007. The downstairs open floor plan has a bar, wine room, and a soundproof media room.

A large covered patio features stone floors, a living room, fireplace, and views of the pool and fountains.

★★

Prescott, Wisconsin. Set on the banks of the Mississippi, this three-bedroom home has floor-to-ceiling windows throughout.

A spa room overlooks the river and has a sauna and a steam room with a two-way mirror. Other amenities include four fireplaces, a wet bar, soaking tub, and multiple decks.

★★

Big Sky, Montana. This 6,700-square-foot home has five-bedrooms and views of The Sphinx and Eagle Mountains. The residence includes a home theater, exercise room, and a master suite with Jacuzzi tub and spa shower.

Outdoor features include a hot tub, fire pit, and access to the Yellowstone Club golf course, mountain biking trails, fishing and other services.

★★

Los Angeles. This mid-century modern home was designed by Haralamb Georgescu and later renovated by Kurt Kruger.

The four-bedroom, white stucco house has a dining terrace which steps down to a pool, spa, and covered lounge. Other property details include a private garden, a glass pavilion, and mature trees.

★★

Camden, Maine. The Norumberga Carriage House is a four-bedroom home built in 1890. Recently renovated, the home has a great room with two fireplaces, a large sauna, an upper level den, and a turret with water views.

The 1.8-acre lot has access to Camden Harbor in Penobscot Bay.

★★

Reno, Nevada. Set on 2.1 acres, this four-bedroom house was built in 2001. A water feature with a grafted pond marks the entrance to the home.

Amenities include floor-to-ceiling glass windows, an open-concept floor plan, and a spa and fireplace in the master suite.

★★

Saint Petersburg, Florida. This four-bedroom home is located on the bay abutting conservation land.

Details include a loft library, five porches with French doors leading to each, and a master suite with soaking tub. The property is located within a gated community and has access to tennis courts, pools, and a spa.