The Sunrise Ridge neighborhood of the Yellowstone Club is aptly named: this southern-facing ridge offers broad, sundrenched scenery, incredible mountain views, and a gentle perch upon which sits this community of triplexes and duplexes. This 123-acre enclave has easy access to the nearby base area amenities yet maintains a “tucked away” feel.

Sunrise Ridge 2B is a duplex situated near the east end of this neighborhood, and overlooks the meadow below with its network of year-round trails. The careful siting of this home captures views of both Pioneer and Eglise Mountains and reveals the beauty of the Yellowstone Club landscape. This residence is designed for entertaining with its open floor plan, lofted ceilings, and ample guest quarters. The design features a welcoming alpine style with a thoughtful mix of natural materials and contemporary touches.

This duplex includes 4,696 square feet of usable space divided across two levels. The home’s main level features the graceful main entry, leading guests to the great room, with its southern views, heavy timbered beams, and stone fireplace. This space flows effortlessly into the kitchen and dining spaces, and also opens to the broad deck. Summer months are best enjoyed out here! In the winter, indoor radiant flooring throughout keeps the home eminently comfortable. Enjoy details like Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances, custom alder cabinetry, and stone slab countertops.

The main level also features the spacious master suite, with its countless amenities. From the steam shower to the soaking tub to the large closet, the owners of this duplex will love retreating to this comfortable sanctuary. Separate doors open out to a cozy seating nook on the outdoor deck, while the fireplace keeps the suite toasty warm on winter evenings.

The home’s lower level offers space for large family gatherings and accommodations for numerous guests. This level includes four additional bedrooms, each with its own bathroom. Two of the bedrooms open to the lower-level patio, which features a firepit and roomy hottub. The lower-level family room has comfy couches, a corner fireplace, and large tv, all of which make this the perfect setting for movie nights. A wet bar and game tables encourage all ages to gather in this space.

This elegant duplex is an ideal getaway for all seasons. In the summer months, Members will enjoy the proximity to hiking trails and the short drive to the golf course and base area, and in the winter, a short drive leads to the lifts at Pioneer Mountain and its renowned Private Powder®.
