UNIT 7010

Villa A4, currently offered for sale as a fully-furnished unit, features over 1,600 square feet of living space. From the building entrance, bright and airy stairs lead down to A4, which occupies half of the building's lower level. This unit is a modern jewel, with a crisp light color scheme accented with pops of natural wood tones, including oak flooring throughout. The furnishings are neutral toned, plush, and inviting, while the artwork features regional photography and impressionistic paintings.

The unit's master suite has abundant thoughtful touches, including wall-mounted reading lamps, fine bedding, and a corner window that guarantees mountain views upon waking. A walk-in closet offers plenty of storage, and the full bathroom features double sinks, stone tile floors, a full-size soaking tub, and a glassed-in steam shower. The second bedroom is configured with one queen, walk-in closet, and adjacent bathroom.

This villa's gathering spaces, the kitchen and living room, are crafted with an open floor plan, lending a spaciousness to this unit. The kitchen has a simple, striking design with its all-white cabinetry, walls, stone countertops, and large central island. High-end appliances like the four-burner range and refrigerator give a taste of culinary masterpieces to come. In the living room, the oversized sliding glass doors take center stage, framing huge views and leading out to the covered patio. The living room is beautifully furnished to inspire gatherings of friends and family; details like the gas fireplace and wooden ceiling and beams ensure cozy vibes throughout the year.

The Villa features on-site parking just outside the building. The Clubhouse is mere steps away, and the numerous amenities of the base area are but a short drive down the hill.
